Greetings

Kim, Bumsoo |
IPUS Director

Seoul National University has been working on various levels, including research, education, and policy development to fulfill its social responsibilities as a national university. It also aims to realize the reunification of North and South Korea and world peace. The Institute for Peace and Unification Studies, which was established in 2006 as the "Unification Research Center" has served as the centerpiece of SNU's efforts and has evolved over the years. In particular, in 2011, the institute was reorganized and renamed to its current name in recognition of the importance of peace research.

Since the late 2000s, the institute has been conducting the Unification Perception Survey, the North Korean Unification Perception Survey, and the North Korea Social Change Survey, as well as measuring and publishing the Inter-Korean Integration Index every year. This is because we have determined that the most necessary task for research and policy formulation on North Korea and unification is the collection and accumulation of basic data. This data has been utilized in a number of academic studies, and has also contributed to the formation of public opinion in our society and the government's policy toward North Korea.

In addition, since 2010, we have been operating the Peace and Humanities Research Group with the support of the Humanities Korea (HK) project for 10 years to establish peace studies based on the Korean Peninsula issues. Since 2015, we have been conducting the Foundation for Unification and Peace Project by organizing a collaborative network of researchers and research institutes who are interested in unification and peace issues. Through this project, we have accumulated knowledge related to North Korea, unification, peace, security, and human rights every year and have contributed to the cultivation of experts in related fields. In addition, we have established a global network and carried out various cooperative projects for the realization of sustainable peace at the global level.

Education related to North Korea, reunification, and peace are also an important responsibility of the institute. To this end, the institute operates the Unification Academy and the Peace Academy for university students and the general public. Since the institute moved to Siheung Campus in 2020, it has been operating the Citizen Peace School and the Leaders Academy in cooperation with Siheung City. The institute also runs the Unification Studies Forum and the Peace Studies

Forum to discuss important and timely topics related to unification and peace. In addition, the institute publishes the SCOPUS-registered English-language journal Asian Journal of Peacebuilding and the KCI-registered Korean-language journal Journal of Peace and Unification Studies twice a year, respectively.

Based on its accumulated experience and competencies on research related to North Korea, Northeast Asia, and the reunification of the two Koreas, the institute is expanding its horizons and scope of activities beyond the Korean Peninsula. The institute is strengthening exchanges and cooperation with overseas research institutions. Through these efforts, the institute aims to become a world-class research center not only in North Korean studies and unification studies, but also in the field of peace studies. We look forward to your encouragement and advice so that the institute can develop into a cradle of wisdom that contributes to the unification of the Korean Peninsula and global peace.

Thank you.

IPUS Director Kim, Bumssoo

Goals

The Institute for Peace and Unification Studies (IPUS) at Seoul National University was established with the aim of recognizing 'unification' and 'peace' as the most important tasks of the Korean people and nation. At IPUS, we aim to contribute to society through academic research on the various issues that will need to be solved in the process of realizing unification and peace.

Vision

Establishment of Interdisciplinary Unification Studies

We perform comprehensive, multidisciplinary studies in preparation for unification, using a systematic approach to the integration process between the North and South. We aim to construct an integrated model through an analytical survey of North Korean society and the variations within it.

Establishment of 'Korean Peace Studies'

By establishing Peace and Humanities Studies, we present a new paradigm of Peace Studies, propose peace within the context of unification, and seek the expansion of peace culture at the global level.

Strengthening Next- Generation Unification and Peace Research

We aim to develop various educational series to foster future generations of scholars who can establish a continuous virtuous cycle of research and education that can contribute back to society through the clear communication of research results.

Construction of Infrastructure on Seoul National University's Unification Research

We aim to organize a 'SNU Unification Research Network' by acting as a focal point for exchanges and cooperation among research institutes related to North Korea and unification within SNU, such as the Unification Medical Center, the Unification Law Center, the Unification Education Research Center, the North Korea Nutrition Policy Support Office, and the North Korea-Overseas Agricultural Research Institute.

Unification and Peace Studies, Constructing a Global Network

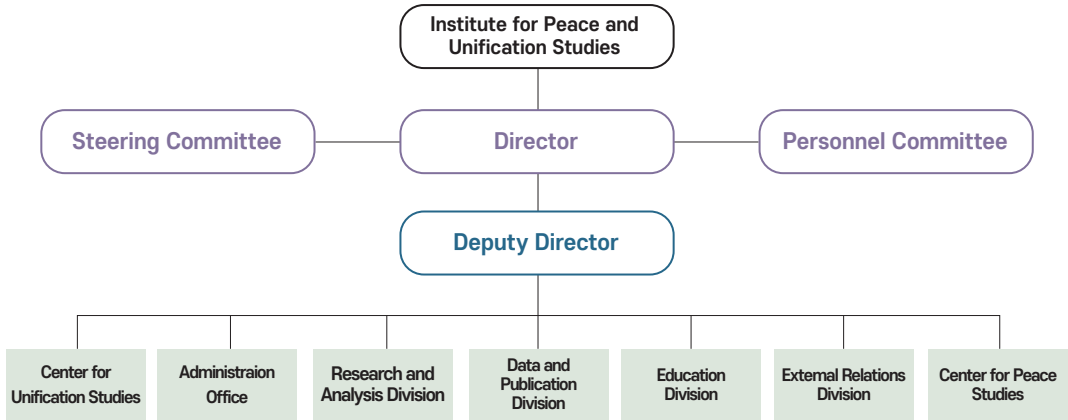

By establishing a bilateral exchange program between the «SNU International Peace Network» and the «Northeast Asia Cooperation Network», we will internationalize unification research and enrich a global network of Peace Studies on the Korean Peninsula.

The Institute for Peace and Unification Studies, Seoul National University "Highest Response Rate for 'No Need for Unification' Since 2007"

(The JoongAng 2023.09.25)

[Reporter Suh, Myung-soo]

Seoul National University's Institute for Peace and Unification Studies will hold an academic conference on the 'A New-Cold War on the Korean Peninsula, Unification at a Distance.' The conference will be held on the 26th to present the results of the '2023 Unification Perception Survey.'

The survey has been conducted since 2007 to examine changes in public views and perceptions on reunification, North Korea, North Korean policy, neighboring countries, and North Korean defectors. The survey has been conducted over the past 17 years, and has been recognized for its credibility.

The conference will be organized in three parts as follows:

In the first session, the main findings will be presented and discussed, and in the second session, in-depth analyses based on the survey data will be presented. In the third session, there will be a general discussion on the topic 'The Coming New Cold War, Unification at a Distance.'

Seoul National University's Institute for Peace and Unification Studies Held an Academic Conference on 'Unification and Peace Foundation Building Project'

(Veritas 2023.11.16.)

[Reporter Jung, Dabin]

Seoul National University's Institute for Peace and Unification Studies announced that it will hold the '2023 Unification and Peace Foundation Building Project Joint Conference' on the 16th and 17th. Through the 'Unification and Peace Foundation Building Project,' the institute has established a platform for unification and peace studies across academic disciplines. The project, which has been running for nine years since 2015, aims to build a foundation for unification and peace studies and contribute to resolving the national task of establishing peace and unification on the Korean Peninsula. This year, a total of 24 project teams from 14 institutions participated in the project and will present their research results at the conference.

[Reporter Lee, Hyun-soo]

On February 17, the first graduation ceremony of the 'World Korean Advanced Leadership Program for Unification and Peace' was held. The program was organized by the Seoul National University's Institute for Peace and Unification Studies in collaboration with the World Assembly of Korean Associations.

The course was designed to foster top leaders of overseas Korean communities. The first class included leading figures in overseas Korean communities who are interested in Korean unification and global peace issues. Also, it included Korean nationals residing in Korea who can actively interact with Korean communities abroad and contribute to the spread of the Korean Wave.

Applications for the second session will begin in July, and more information about the course can be found at <https://wk-alpup.snu.ac.kr>.

일시 2023년 5월 19일(금) 14:00~18:00
장소 서울대학교 아시아연구소 영원홀(101동 210호)

인사말
 서울대학교 통일평화연구원은 2006년 통일연구소라는 이름으로 설립된 이후 통일과 평화 문제에 초점을 맞춘 연구 및 학술 활동을 수행해 왔습니다. 이번엔 창립 17주년을 맞아 대학과 통일, 통일학의 국제화를 주제로 학술회의를 개최하고자 합니다.

통일학은 넓은 의미에서 남북 관계와 북한 관련 연구를 포함하는 학문 분야로 통일평화연구원의 가장 중요한 연구 분야 중 하나입니다. 저희 연구원은 통일학의 국제화를 위해 지난 17년간 해외 기관과 통일학 관련 국제학술회의를 공동 개최하고 영어로 책과 자료를 출간하는 등 다양한 노력을 기울여 왔습니다. 다만 아직 불교는 기대에 미치지 못하고 있습니다. 이번엔 창립 17주년을 맞아 전일 원정팀들과 여러 학자분들을 모시고 통일학의 국제화를 위한 방안에 대해 함께 고민해 보고자 합니다. 우선 1부에서는 "대학과 통일"이라는 주제로 전일 원정팀들과 통일학의 현황과 과제를 살펴보고 서울대학교 통일평화연구원이 나아가야 할 방향에 대해 논의하고자 합니다. 이어서 2부에서는 다양한 관점에서 통일학의 새로운 패러다임을 모색하고 통일학의 국제화 방안 등에 대해 살펴보고자 합니다.

많은 내빈이 참석하시리라 기대합니다. 서울대학교 통일평화연구원의 창립 17주년 기념 학술회의에 참석하셔서 소중한 나눔을 실천하시길 기대합니다. 앞으로도 저희 연구원 활동에 많은 관심과 성원 부탁드립니다.

Center for Unification Studies

The Center aims to conduct interdisciplinary research on the challenges of integrating North and South Korea, examines issues to be resolved during and after the unification process, and establish unification studies that encompasses political and economic dimensions and social and psychological dimensions. The center conducts basic research on North Korea and unification, such as the 〈Unification Consciousness Survey〉, 〈Inter-Korean Integration Index〉, the 〈North Korean Consciousness Survey〉, and the 〈North Korean Social Change Survey〉, and supports external research. The “Unification Studies Forum” holds various academic events on unification and North Korea issues. The Center publishes the “Unification Studies Series,” which includes the books 〈New Books on Unification Studies〉 and 〈Unification Studies Research〉.

● Unification Studies Forum

The IPUS at SNU regularly organizes the “IPUS Unification Studies Forum,” which invites domestic and international scholars, experts, and government officials to hear and discuss opinions on the Korean Peninsula, Northeast Asia, North Korea and unification-related issues, as well as various international issues. It is the successor to the “Unification Policy Forum,” which was launched in 2006 to expand the base of unification studies, and was relaunched under its current name in 2021 to encompass a wide range of topics related to unification studies and peace studies as well as policy. The Unification Studies Forum aims to contribute to building an academic foundation for the unification of the Korean Peninsula and human peace by presenting new perspectives and exploring alternatives from an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspective on current issues and problems of North Korea, unification, and international affairs. In 2023, a total of seven Unification Studies Fora were held.

Unification and Peace Foundation Building Project

In 2014, Seoul National University (SNU) launched the 'SNU Unification Research Network.' This is based on the <Basic Research Support Program for Unification and Peace Studies>, which was conducted between 2003 to 2012. The network aims to to prepare for unification at the university level by linking research institutes in various fields within SNU, including humanities, sociology, law, agriculture, medicine, education, international politics, etc.

Seoul National University Unification and Peace Foundation Building Project

Since 2015, Seoul National University has been promoting the "Unification Foundation Building Project." The project aims to develop a comprehensive and systematic capability in addressing and contributing to the resolution of unification problem, which is one of the main concerns of the government and our society. In 2021, the project was renamed as the "Unification and Peace Foundation Building Project" so that the project encompasses various topics such as peace, human rights, and security. Since 2022, the project has started to support research that are conducted for multiple years, enabling continuity of research. In 2024, a new type of project will be created to conduct research in the areas of knowledge expansion for reunification, human resource development & reunification education, global network building, and multilateral cooperation.

● 《National University Network for Peace in Korean Peninsula》

To fulfill its social responsibilities as a national university, Seoul National University has established the 〈National University Network for Peace in Korean Peninsula〉 with eight regional-based national universities (Kangwon National University, Pusan National University, Jeonbuk National University, Chungnam National University, Jeju National University, Chonnam National University, Kyungpook National University, and Gyeongsang National University) to conduct education and research projects in preparation for an era of peace on the Korean Peninsula. The IPUS at SNU is participating in the 〈National University Network for Peace in Korean Peninsula〉 on behalf of Seoul National University and is leading joint research and education projects to realize peace on the Korean Peninsula and revitalize inter-Korean exchange and cooperation. The 〈National University Network for Peace in Korean Peninsula〉 plans to continue the "Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) on the Korean Peninsula," the "Joint Education Center for Unification and Peace," and the "Council for Network Building and Sustainable Development" as subprojects.

◆ Purpose

- To share the unification and peace education and research that national universities have been doing for peace on the Korean Peninsula and explore ways to cooperate with them.
- To propose feasible inter-Korean exchange and cooperation projects for lasting peace on the Korean peninsula, through which national and public universities can contribute to government policies and actively communicate with civil society and the international community.

◆ Detailed Projects

1. Joint Research on setting "Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) for the Korean Peninsula"
  - The Joint research team held expert meetings with UN ESCAP, UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Survey(MICS), and the High Level Political Forum(HLPF) under UN ECOSOC.
  - 2019: Created templates for Peace (Goal 16) and Partnership (Goal 17) of the SDGs.
  - 2020: Selected healthcare, education, and forest greening as specific areas of the SDGs for research, conducting the research.
  - 2021: Conducted research centered on poverty, gender, economic growth, and inequality among the SDGs goals.
  - 2022: Conducted research on the remaining goals of the SDGs, focusing on poverty, water, infrastructure, cities, inequalities, climate and environment, analyzing all of the SDGs goals and completing the template.

2. Joint Research on the “Politics of Conflict Resolution for Realizing Peace”

- Explored practical ways to resolve various conflicts faced by Korean society internally and externally, such as ideological conflicts, distributional conflicts, cultural conflicts, trade disputes, and arms–race.

3. Joint Research on the “Peace and Democracy”

- Conducted macro–level research on the relationship between regimes and peace, noting that despite the global spread of democracy, social conflicts are increasing both internationally and domestically.

4. Establishment and Operation of the Joint Education Center for Unification and Peace

- Each university operated its own program by organizing lecturers in various field such as engineering, civil engineering, education, science, and nutrition, as well as social science fields such as political science, economics, and geography.

5. Operation of a Council for Network Establishment and Sustainable Development

- Designed and operated research and forum projects while overseeing all network projects.

《Peace Academy》

◆ 11th Peace Academy

The <IPUS Peace Academy>, first launched in 2013 and now in its 11th year, is an educational program aimed at students, the general public, and activists in the field to communicate and share the results of peace humanities research. The <11th Peace Academy> was held from October 10 to November 21, 2023, for a total of seven weeks, with the theme of 'Cold War and Peace Revisited in the Era of U.S.–China Hegemonic Competition,' and gathered prominent scholars and researchers from around the world to deliver lectures on various topics, including the origins of U.S.–China competition, Korea's unification and foreign policy direction, lessons from the Cold War, and the path of peace studies.

This year, the Peace Academy was changed to a '7-week non-contact course' system, as opposed to the '8-week non-contact course + field camp' program in previous years.

Instead, the 'Field Camp' program was developed as a separate program called 'Summer Camp' and was held as an extension of the <National University Network for Peace in Korean Peninsula> project to unify students, enhance their understanding of peace, and encourage face-to-face exchanges.

A total of 100 students participated in the academy through a separate screening process, and 59 of them completed the program. Students accounted for more than half of the participants, including 30% of undergraduate students, 38% of graduate students, 22% of general citizens, and 10% of others. When looking at the majors of the students, social science majors accounted for 42%, followed by humanities majors at 12%, science and engineering majors at 9%, and peace and reunification studies at 1%. Compared to the previous year, the proportion of each major has decreased overall, as the number of academy students has increased, and the proportion of general citizens has also increased. In terms of occupation, 17% of the students were professionals, 5% were members of civic organizations, and 10% were other. In terms of age, students in their 20s accounted for 44%, followed by 23% of those over 50, and 19% and 14% of those in their 30s and 40s, respectively.

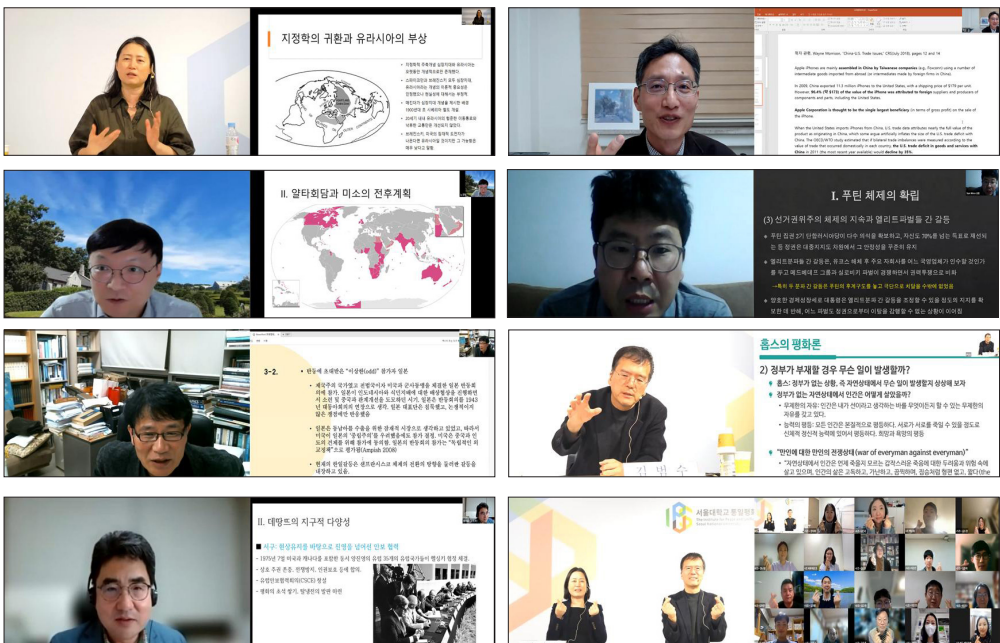

Program
Lecture 1	Peace Studies in the Age of the Return of Geopolitics Baik, Jiwoon (IPUS at SNU)
Lecture 2	The Origin of the U.S.–Soviet Cold War: From Yalta to Peaceful Coexistence Roh, Kyung-Deok (Seoul National University)

- Lecture 3 Unfinished Legacy, Bandung Conference: The Cold War and the Third World's Choices

◉ 《World Korean Advanced Leadership Program for Unification and Peace》

◆ 1st World Korean Advanced Leadership Program for Unification and Peace

〈World Korean Advanced Leadership Program for Unification and Peace〉 (WK-ALPUP) is an educational program for Koreans around the world to foster domestic and international talents with Korean identity and global leadership. The first WK-ALPUP, which began on October 7, 2023 with an entrance ceremony, was a hybrid of face-to-face and virtual courses so that overseas Koreans living abroad could also attend. The course was attended by leading figures in the overseas Korean community who are interested in Korean unification and world peace issues, as well as Korean nationals living in Korea who can communicate with the global Korean community and contribute to the spread of the Korean Wave.

The lectures were organized into 30 sessions, covering topics such as world peace and inter-Korean relations, peace in Northeast Asia, national identity and global citizenship, culture and arts, and overseas Koreans. During the first and second face-to-face intensive lectures, held on October 7-10, 2023 and February 12-17, 2024, all students stayed at the Hoam Faculty House at Seoul National University and participated in lectures and interacted with each other. On Saturday, February 17, 2024, the last day of the second intensive face-to-face course, the first WK-ALPUP ended with a graduation ceremony in the Marronnier Hall of Hoam Faculty House.

At the graduation ceremony, 42 out of 44 students received certificates of completion signed by the President of Seoul National University, with an attendance rate of more than 80% and fulfillment of the course requirements. More than 90% of the first-term graduates responded that they were satisfied with the face-to-face lectures and virtual courses. The graduation ceremony was followed by a ceremony to hand over the development fund of the 1st Alumni Association.

《Siheung Academy》

In 2020, in compliance with the relocation of the Siheung campus, the IPUS at SNU launched the 《Siheung Academy》 in cooperation with the city of Siheung. The 《Siheung Academy》 aims to: 1) contribute to the formation of a healthy and future-oriented peace sensitivity and unification consciousness among Siheung citizens by utilizing the institute's accumulated experience and network in unification and peace education; 2) establish a virtuous cycle of knowledge and daily life, research and practice, through direct communication between the university and the citizens of the local government; and 3) realize win-win cooperation with the university's public service and the local government. The 《Siheung Academy》 consists of the Siheung Citizens' Peace School (1st semester) for general citizens and the Siheung Leaders' Academy (2nd semester) for local leaders.

《3rd Siheung Citizens' Peace School》 Asking the Classics for the Path of Peace

The 3rd 《Siheung Citizens' Peace School》, held in May/June 2023 under the title of "Asking the Classics for the Path of Peace," aimed to approach peace in earnest by providing citizen-level lectures for seven weeks. Peace is a value shared by all of humanity, but it is often taken for granted or seems too far away. In this 《Siheung Citizens' Peace School》, we wanted to share the story of peace through the classics with the citizens of Siheung. With the active participation of Siheung citizens, lecturers composed of experts in their respective fields delivered lectures on a wide range of topics including Aristophanes, Kant, Hannah Arendt, classical paintings, Adam Smith, Nietzsche, John Rawls, and other classics.

◆ <3rd Siheung Leaders' Academy> After Pandemic and War: A Turbulent World and the Future of the Korean Peninsula

In October–November 2023, the 3rd <Siheung Leaders' Academy> was held under the theme “After the Pandemic and War: A Turbulent World and the Future of the Korean Peninsula.” In the midst of the pandemic and war, we gathered top experts from around the world to envision and prepare for the future of the Korean peninsula, looking at the turbulent world.

● 《International Academic Journal: Asian Journal of Peacebuilding (AJP)》

IPUS launched Asia's first international journal specializing in Peace Studies, the AJP, in May 2013. The AJP, which is issued twice a year in May and November, communicates the academic possibilities of 'Peace Studies from the Korean Peninsula' sent in by researchers with Asia and the world, while collecting meaningful results from world peace studies.

The AJP is undoubtedly the first specialized international academic journal on Peace Studies in Asia. The AJP has been faithfully fulfilling its role in improving the quality of research and academic activities of the IPUS based on incorporating significant achievements in global peace studies, while simultaneously disseminating the awareness of Peace Humanities Studies globally. The AJP has invited Nobel Peace Prize laureate José Ramos-Horta, former President of Timor-Leste, and former Chairmen of peace-related international associations such as ISA and IPRA (Harvey Starr, Ethel Solingen and T.V. Paul) as editorial board members to encourage the submission of outstanding papers, demonstrating its ability to attract exceptional papers, including those by Nobel Peace Prize laureate Aung San Suu Kyi and former President of Timor-Leste, José Ramos-Horta. The AJP has been recognized as international and professional not only in the screening process but also in the production process of accepted papers. Currently, AJP is indexed in KCI (Korean Citation Index) and SCOPUS.

● 《Korean Academic Journal: Journal of Peace and Unification Studies》

IPUS published the Korean academic journal the 'Journal of Peace and Unification Studies' twice a year since June 2009, and has increased its publication to four times a year since April 2024. The 'Journal of Peace and Unification Studies' aims to deepen and diversify research on the keywords “peace” and “unification,” which are essential for shaping the future vision of the Korean Peninsula, and to promote scholarly communication. To achieve these goals, the 'Journal of Peace and Unification Studies' rigorously selects and publishes pure academic papers that cover the following areas: 1) research on the regional situation surrounding the Korean Peninsula and various aspects of North Korea, theories and methodologies of unification studies, and 2) key themes of peace, including the overall violence and dispeace structures surrounding humanity, nature, and society, as well as environmental issues, ecology, and various crises and conflicts caused by globalization. In particular, based on the multidisciplinary nature of Unification Studies and Peace Studies, the 'Journal of Peace and Unification Studies' aspires to position itself as a comprehensive academic journal that encompasses the fields of humanities and social sciences. It also aims to cover practical and policy-oriented approaches to unification and peace by actively engaging in discussions on civilizational values and their feasibility. The 'Journal of Peace and Unification Studies' is currently indexed in the KCI (Korea Citation Index).
