“Proposal: Why the Consortium Now?”

Professor HA Yong-Chool
University of Washington

10:00–10:15 Coffee Break

10:15–12:15 Responses of the Participating Nations (I)

Representatives of each country will present a brief notion on Northeast Asian regional cooperation and critically and specifically evaluate the mission of the project as expressed in the previous session from their personal/professional and national perspectives. The presentations should be brief and focused, raising issues that will be addressed in the general discussion that will follow in the afternoon. The goal of this and the succeeding session is to build consensus on the mission, before considering the specific agenda for action.

- ① Articulate a vision of the Northeast Asia Community Building Institute.
- ② Provide a list of strategic issues on which your country can most effectively contribute to regional cooperation.

- ③ Articulate what, if any, activities your country (both private and public sectors) has done in this area and how they relate to our program.
